

A BRAND NEW BULLETIN

WHO'S WHO

This year, following consultation, we have decided to reduce the size of our Training Bulletin. The new format concentrates on listing the training opportunities available within the County - not just those related to the adult training modules but also the specialist courses and training events already planned for 2019.

You will find details of the specialist courses and events on page 2 together with contact details for the organising body - don't forget to check the County website - www.hwscouts.org.uk - regularly as more opportunities will be arranged as the year progresses.

Details of the adult training courses for 2019 and 2020 are on pages 3 and 4.

Inside this bulletin you will find a copy of the latest version of the modular training course application form - please ensure this version is used. The older versions are not GDPR compliant and some do not provide all the required information.

We have an exciting year ahead with lots of courses and events including a County Camp at the Royal Three Counties Showground - 5th-7th July 2019

Have you booked yet?

- Do you enjoy singing campfire songs but lack the confidence in running your own campfire?

Then why not come and join us, and we will give you the confidence, the basic skills and tools to give your young people a campfire experience to remember.
